Production Development Sonu Ke Titu Ki Sweety was originally going to be called I Love You. The principal photography was supposed to begin in June 2016 in Mumbai. Luv Ranjan announced the film in January 2017 through Twitter that the film is going to be shot in Bengaluru. The film was released on 2 February 2018. Soundtrack Sonu Ke Titu Ki Sweety's soundtrack is composed by Shankar Mahadevan and lyrics are penned by the director, Siddharth Anand, Anirudh Ravichander and Prasoon Joshi. The first song of the film "Heiya" which was shot in a suburban railway station inspired by the songs from the 1970s Bollywood film Zubeidaa. Critical response Siddharth Anand wrote in Deccan Herald that "Sonu Ke Titu Ki Sweety is a wonderfully goofy, but touching film that uses this conceit to examine certain issues in a moving and quirky way. The tone of this film is distinctly unique in terms of its script and direction, and it is refreshing to watch a film like this with a full head of steam." and gave it 3.5 stars. India Today wrote "With jokes that are smartly layered and often very amusing, Sonu Ke Titu Ki Sweety is on the right path. Could this be the most original Bollywood comedy since Lakshya 82157476af
